IMPORTANT FROM EUROPE. Satisfaction Demanded of Portugal for the Insult to our Flag.

HALIFAX, April 14 .- The steamship Europa, from Liverpool on the 1st via Queenstown on the 2d instant, arrived here at two o'clock this morning.

The American Minister has demanded satisfaction of the Portuguese government for firing into the Niagara and Sacramento. He demands that the American flag shall be saluted by the forts which fired into our vessels, and the dismissal of the Governor of the forts.

The American commanders deny any intention of sailing at the time they were fired upos.

Movements of Gen. Grant-Gen. Lee's Desire to go to Europe.

A letter to the New York Times, from City Point, dated April 11, says: "I arrived here from Richmond this morning, in order to witness the arrival here of General Grant and staff, and are expected this afternoon. A special train left here at midnight last evening for Burkesville to bring them in. General Lee will proceed to Richmond from this point, and I am informed on good authority that he has expressed a desire to depart for Europe with the rest of his family at an early day. He is much affected by late events, and ere leaving Petersburg, is said to have been deeply moved at the calamity which had overtaken his army. Davis has deserted him, and is retreating on his own account. General Lez, however, fought as long as there was the least chance, and surren-

GOLDSBOROUGH, April 6 .- The capture of Richmond and the great victory of Grant was telegraphed here this morning from Newbern. The joy and enthusiasm in Sherman's army was beyond description. The Union citizens at Raleigh also celebrated the event in spite of the rebels, who are now powerless to prevent such loyal manifestations of joy, which refugees say are openly being displayed at different points of the Here, at Newbern and other points in the

Latest from Richmond.

FITZHUGH LEE AND ROSSER RUN AWAY.

DESTRUCTION OF TOBACCO IN LYNCHBURG

We have the Richmond Whig of yesterday from which we take the following of interest: "We learn that Gen. Robert E. Lee arrived in the city last night. Gens. Rosser and Fitzbugh Lee refused to abide by the terms of surrender it is said, and made their escape, unattended, to "parts unknown."

The number of men surrendered by Gen. Lee is stated at 25,000, of whom only 8,000 had muskets. The rest had thrown away their arms during the forced marches into the inte-

Gen. Thomas' cavalry has occupied Lynchburg. On Wednesday, the tobacco, public stores and a number of buildings were destroyed by order of the military authorities. Personal .- We have had the pleasure of an interview, at our office, with Rev. Dr B. H. Nadal, of Washington, D. C., one of the editors of the New York Methodist; and Rev Dr. S. B. Rooney, formerly of New York. These ministers are able and zealous members of the "Christian Commission." They and their associates have devoted themselves to the humane undertaking of alleviating the great distress and destitution prevailing in this city. FALSE REPORTS .- We again advise our citizens to discontinue the practice of circulating rumors which are set affoat by persons inter-ested in the success of the Southern arms. They are the progeny of an overwrought imagination, and constitute the food upon which the secession element expects to feed so long as the war lasts. Give no heed to them. The Hotels to be re-opened immediately are the Ballard, and perhaps the Exchange, the Powhatan, and St. Charles. Their accommodations will all be needed.

STOLEN GOODS -There are hundreds of thousands of dollars worth of goods stored away in the houses of various persons, which is the rightful property of many worthy suf-ferers by the late fire. These goods were rescued from the fire by persons who seem to be possessed of the idea that all such property saved is legitimate plunder, and that the former owners have no more right to it. This is altogether wrong, and we would direct the attention of all holding others' property to the order of the military authorities respecting such property, and the disposition to be made of it, to the end that they may be saved troubie and annoyance.

Maj. Gen. O. C. Ord, commanding the Army of the James, arrived in Richmond yesterday morning with his staff, and put at headquarters. Gen Ord has been with Gen. Grant with a portion of his army, following up the pursuit of Lee. It is supposed that Gen. Ord will assume command here. THE MARKETS .- The display of vegetables meats, salads, &c., in the upper market, was better yesterday that at any time since the occupation of the city, but inclined to rule high. Salads from 30 to 50 cents; fish, per bunch, $1; meats, 40 to 50 cents per pound; butter, 50 and 60 cents, with a better supply. THE "SOLDIERS' Homes" vacated by the Confederate Government have been taken pessession of by the United States forces occupying the city; and the soldiers have gone to work making themselves comfortable in the possession of them. THE CITY POST OFFICE.-D. B. Parker, Special Agent of the Post Office Department. has re-opened the City Post Office, under the

Spotswood Hotel. L. T. Clawson is his representative in charge at present. ROCKETTS, the port of Richmond, has within few days been changed as by the wand of enchantment. The hum of trade is again heard where so recently nothing was audible but the occasional rumble of a Confederate wagon and the slow clanking of hammers on those absurd institutions, Mr. Mallory's iron-clads. Steamers and schooners line the wharves, and wagons, drays and vans rush to and fro with all the eager enterprise of Broad way. Another equally striking change is being rapidly worked. The mud and filth and grass of four years had accumulated on the pavements and sidewalks, ranging in depth from six inches to two feet. By order of the military authorities, upwards of a thousand colored laborers are employed in the thorough cleansing of the streets and wharves, and already the work has made great progress. If this system is per-severed in, as judging from the action of the United States authorities in New Orleans we have no doubt it will be, during the coming summer Richmond will be healthier than at any former period. A NATIONAL SALUTE of two hundred guns was fired yesterday afternoon on the Square, by directions of a general order of the Secre. tary of War. The firing was by company D, 4th battery, United States Regulars, Captain Follet, and was in honor of the official announcement of the surrender of Gen. Lee and the Army of Northern Virginia. THE GAS. - Fifty barrels of lime were received in the city yesterday, to be used in the purification of the gas at the gas works. The gas was turned on last night, and we hope now to have a continuous supply.

THE CIVIL COURTS have suspended their functions, but we understand the clerks of the several courts have permission to continue their duties, issue marriage licences, &c , which will be a great convenience to those desiring to enter the bonds of a matrimonial union." OARWOOD CEMETERY .- This cometery has been used for three years as a place of burial for Union soldiers that have died in prison bere. Their graves are generally marked, and friends from the North who desire to disinter the bodies can do so without difficulty and have them sent North."

The Whig says editorially: The duty of all true Virginians is perfectly apparent. Whatever may have been their previous views and wishes, they will now step forth and acknowledge at once the authority of the United States Government, and that they owe full allegiance to it. The slightest hesitather complicate the difficulty of the situation, and throw additional obstacles in the way of a speedy return to that quietude and freedom from restraint that is essential to enable the people to recover from the blighting effect this unbappy war has had on every interest in this State. The course of the authorities and of the soldiery in this city is well calculated to inepire confidence in their desire to see harmony and fraternal feeling restored in our common country; and we feel confident that our people. in every section of the State, will freely respond, and do in all their power to bring about a consummation which will be fraught with so much of happiness and good.

THE CELEBRATION.

The grand display last night by the people of Washington was infinitely creditable to their patriotism and public spirit. It would have been creditable indeed to the great commercia; cities in which the wealth of a single block exceeds all in Washington. No more need be said in behalf of the citizens' demonstration than the admitted fact that grand as was the display by the Government (which so promptly and kindly co-operated with the city authorities) that display was only auxiliary to that on the part of the city, so general in its character and so brilliant was the latter.

In our local columns will be found very fall details of this remarkable demonstration, a demonstration which must live in the memory of the spectators as long as memory lasts.
